

Welcome Spring!

May you and your family enjoy a bright and beautiful Spring Season!

Attorneys named Rising Stars by NC Super Lawyers

Congratulations to Tracy Stroud and Kevin Sayed, who are both included in the 2019 North Carolina Super Lawyers' List. Super Lawyers selects attorneys using a multiphase selection process that includes nominations by their own peers. It is an honor reserved for those attorneys who exhibit excellence in their practice.

Tracy Stroud has been chosen as a 2019 Rising Star in the practice area of Employment and Labor Law. Tracy has practiced in Greenville since 2009 and was named as a partner of the firm in 2015. She practices in the areas of employment law, contract disputes and commercial litigation, estate and trust disputes, and real estate litigation.

Kevin Sayed was also chosen as a 2019 Rising Star in the practice area of Business/Corporate Law. Kevin received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, his Juris Doctor from Charlotte School of Law, and his Master of Laws in Taxation from the University of Florida-Levin College of Law. Kevin has practiced with Colombo Kitchin Attorneys since March 2013. Kevin practices in the areas of taxation, including corporate, partnership, trust, estate tax, and business planning and business transactions.

Mike Colombo has also been named to 2019 Super Lawyers list for the practice area of Estate Planning and Probate. Mike has received the designation of Super Lawyer for the past twelve years.

Mike is a past president of the North Carolina Bar Association and founding partner of Colombo, Kitchin, Dunn, Ball & Porter, LLP. He is a North Carolina Board Certified Estate Planning and Probate Specialist, and he also practices in the areas of business planning and taxation.

Other attorneys previously named to the Super Lawyer or Rising Star list include Walt Kitchin (Super Lawyer 2010-2011) and Jay Holland (Rising Star 2012).

Colombo, Kitchin, Dunn, Ball and Porter, LLP has been serving the citizens of Eastern North Carolina for over 35 years, and recently opened a second office in Washington, North Carolina.
